Frequently Asked Questions

Everything you need to know about listing your space on FindMySpace.

1

What is FindMySpace?

FindMySpace is a marketplace that connects people looking for space with owners who have available storage, parking, workspace, or lifestyle space to rent.

2

What types of spaces can I list?

Garages, parking bays, storage rooms, carports, offices, boat or caravan storage, warehouses, driveways, farms, and more.

3

How does pricing work?

You set your own price based on the type of space, location, security, accessibility, and rental duration. Offer hourly, daily, weekly, or monthly rentals.

4

What commission does FindMySpace charge?

Short-term rentals: 15% owner commission + 3.5% transaction fee (charged to the renter).

Monthly rentals: 15% monthly commission + 3.5% transaction fee (charged to the renter).

5

When do I get paid?

Payments are processed securely through the platform. Payout timing depends on the booking duration and payment cycle.

6

How does owner verification work?

To help build trust and security, owners may need to provide ID verification, banking details, ownership confirmation, and contact details.

7

Is my listing reviewed before going live?

Yes. Listings are reviewed before approval to help maintain quality standards, accurate information, safer experiences, and trusted listings.

8

Can I choose when my space is available?

Yes. You stay in control of availability, pricing, booking preferences, rental duration, and space rules.

9

How do renters contact me?

Renters communicate through the FindMySpace platform to help keep communication secure and organised.

10

What happens if there is a problem or dispute?

FindMySpace provides support to help owners and renters resolve issues fairly and efficiently.
